A MESSAGE FROM OUR MINISTER:

Today is a joint service – two congregations coming together in worship. It is always good to come together and celebrate what we have in common, the thing we share – our faith.

In a world where differences are so easily highlighted and exaggerated and become barriers creating conflict, it is good to remember what we have in common. God loves ALL people, regardless of any humanly-perceived differences. We gather as those who know that God loves us.

Jesus has shown it through His Life and Death and Resurrection and if we believe that then the Holy Spirit shows it within our hearts and lives.

The letter to the Hebrews was written to early Christians who had got trapped in the world's way of seeing differences rather than grasping God's way of seeing everyone in the same way.

God's Love and His ways do not change or waver – He is the same, yesterday, today and forever!

Come and celebrate with us. God Bless, Mark

PRAYER THEME Thank Jesus that He is the same – yesterday, today, for ever.

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

Lord Jesus,
Your Kingship is the same,
Your compassion is the same,
Your humility is the same,
Your boldness is the same,
Your Love is the same,
Your Servant Heart inspires, strengthens and sustains us,
yesterday, today and for ever.
We praise and thank You.

Amen
