A Message for our Minister

Alleluia ... Christ is Risen!

HE IS RISEN INDEED ... ALLELUIA!

Today we focus on the theme of Hope. Hope which dispels fear, Hope which inspires, Hope which draws us toward God. You see, true hope is not just a cosy sit-at-home feeling, but an active, living force which compels us to respond.

With all that is going on in the world we need some hope. Where do we find it?

With an Election this past week, who do we put our hope in?

The answer is simple: Jesus.

On Sunday, we come ALL Together ... NOW! to celebrate the Love and Hope which crosses all barriers – even age!

Our time together each week is precious, a chance to be reminded of the reason for our Hope. A chance to allow God to refresh our inner spiritual selves through song, prayer, symbols, and fellowship. A chance to bring before Jesus our concerns and fears. A chance to open ourselves to the Holy Spirit and His work within us.

“Let us not give up meeting together ... but let us encourage one another ...” (Hebrews 10:25)

Join with us,

God Bless,
Mark

This Week's Prayer

God of all hope, I praise You.

I go into a new week with Your Hope in my heart.

I praise You for all the chances there will be to share that hope with others.

Holy Spirit, help me keep my eyes firmly fixed on Jesus, the giver of Hope and Grace.

Prayer Theme:

Ask the Holy Spirit to stir hope in your heart and mind, whatever you may face this week.

Wateraid

In my eight years as a water and sewage sampler for this region (yes there is such a job, Tony Robinson didn't make it up) I was made aware of WaterAid, the water industry's 'own' charity which supplies clean water to developing countries.

Back in the year 2000 Dunscore church made a significant donation to its work. Please consider going to their website and making a donation to cut down illnesses and to reduce the amount of time people have to spend carrying water.
