A Message from our Minister:

Today, as it is half-term for the schools, we're doing a bit of revision!

We will look at Moses, Paul and the B's that God used to help them!

Sometimes it is good to be reminded that the Infinite, Eternal God actually wants to help us.

We don't have to twist His arm ... He WANTS to be alongside us, around us, within us!

Yes ... you and me! That doesn't seem likely does it?

The old TV show 'The Likely Lads' followed the ups and downs of ordinary life of two friends. More downs than ups. Not what they'd hoped for or dreamed of as younger lads.

Today we see God at work in the lives of Moses and Paul – dramatic stories of God's calling and empowering of two very unlikely people. If you feel unlikely you're not alone! Join the 'unlikely' as we seek God's call and power,

God Bless,

Mark

Prayer Theme: Thank God for the times you have received His help, healing, comfort and strength

Prayer for the Week:

Almighty, Infinite, Eternal God,

we thank You that You are concerned for us.

We thank You that You want to be alongside us whatever we face.

We thank You that You want to heal our brokenness.

We thank You that You want to comfort us.

We thank You that You sent Jesus to open the way for us to receive what You want to give us.

We thank You that You send the Holy Spirit

to ensure that we know Your Presence every day.

We thank You.

Eco Snippet

Last week's Eco Snippet was about ethical email providers. You could also consider whether your web browser and search engine are ethical too. You may not be surprised to know that the default browsers, Google and Bing, are owned by "big tech" and score vdry poorly for their ethics. You could try one of the lesser known alternatives – I have opted for Ecosia which focuses on climate and the environment. I said, last week, that changing email address is a bit of a slog. Changing browser and search engine is much quicker and easier.
